

E-Commerce Marketing Intern

Bambeco, a Baltimore-based eco-friendly home furnishings and décor company is looking for a local, part-time intern for Summer or Fall semester. E-Commerce Marketing/Merchandising Intern will be responsible for maintaining email archives for multiple websites as well as competitor promotions. Intern will obtain & record sales, trends & other analytical data. This position should qualify for college credits as an intern program.

Job Benefits:

- Learn About Internet Business - This internship is an excellent way to learn about the many facets of Internet Business and gain invaluable real world experience.
- Resume Experience Builder - This internship provides students with an excellent way to build professional work experience for their resume.
- Excellent opportunity to gain hands on experience in the world of e-commerce.
- Receive exposure to a small business start-up environment and work closely with employees.

Candidate must have:

- Excellent writing and communication skills
- Excellent organizational skills
- The ability to multi-task
- Attention to detail
- Problem-solver
- Self-starter

Qualifications:

- Candidate must be a student majoring in a Business related degree and working towards a Bachelor's degree. At minimum, the Candidate must have completed their sophomore year.
- Candidate must have a 2.5 GPA or higher.
- Candidate must be able to work from our Baltimore, MD office (Brooklyn area of Baltimore).

To apply for this position, send your cover letter, resume, salary history/requirements to careers@bambeco.com